

Drum Corps Scholarship Application (2023)

Performing Arts Initiative for Students of Color
Drum Corps Scholarship Program

DESCRIPTION

PAISOC aims to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion through scholarship and leadership opportunities. The Drum Corps Scholarship program seek to recognize current and future student leaders of color in the marching arts and broader performing arts world.

PAISOC aims to provide scholarships for students of color participating in a Drum and Bugle Corps for the 2023 season. Scholarship funds can apply toward tuition, fees, or other drum corps-related expenses (including but not limited to travel, personal supplies, and other related out-of-pocket expenses that are necessary for a drum corps experience).

We ask our program recipients to be ambassadors of PAISOC, meaning that they will positively represent and advocate our efforts to promote diversity in the performing arts.

All applications will be made anonymous for the review committee, comprised of representatives from PAISOC board members and volunteers. Any personally identifiable information is used for data purposes and kept confidential and not shared with any outside entities.

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicants must self-identify as students of color (including but not limited to Black, African-American, Asian, South Asian, Middle Eastern, Pacific Islander, Latinx, Chicax, Indigenous-American, and multiracial identities).
- Applicants must be contracted to participate in a drum corps by June 1 , 2023. A scholarship may be awarded before an applicant is contracted with a drum corps, but will not be distributed until membership is verified by PAISOC.
- Applicants must be 22 years of age or under.
- Everyone must complete their application on google forms thoroughly. Please note the minimum word requirements (200 words) on some short answer questions.

DEADLINES

March 10, 2023, 11:59 pm PST.

Notification for awards will be no later than March 31, 2023.

Please contact scholarships@paisoc.org with any questions, or message us on Facebook @PAISOCofficial.
